Here into my conscience, the battle comes here into night silence, he calls my name

Come and see their pleasures, they never rest all those damned beings will never be blessed

Celebrate the pain, going insane celebrate the pain, calling my name

Be my disease, contaminate those bodies be their misery and agony Never forgive, never hear their claim just hate them, they will burn the flame

Celebrate the pain, going insane
celebrate the pain, calling my name

Come here and take me beyond myself my vitations and diseases belong to this place

I know how the silence sounds down there where light blinds the damned creatures in disgrace

Get the veangence, get your own slave torture every mind and soul bitterness will be forever the only fate bitterness will be forever a sweet fate

Celebrate the pain, going insane
celebrate the pain, calling my name

Come here and take me beyond myself
my vitations and diseases belong to this place
I know how the silence sounds down there
where light blinds the damned creatures in disgrace
