Yeah everybody's got a soul to shine I know
I want to be good enough for someone but no one says it like that Yeah Britain's favorite junky of '04 I know
First they're gonna build him up and then just let him go...

Chorus:

No it's not the same when they call me by my name these days
Because I know by the sound that they don't know who I am, oh no no

Well I only dance 3 times a year
And I only say what I feel cuz it's worth it you know Yeah you know.

Yeah everybody's got a soul to shine I know
I want to be good enough for someone but just don't say it like tha
One girl on fire just trying now to keep it out I see The harder that she tries more bright it's gonna shine you see...

Back to Chorus

I only say what I feel
I only feel three times a year.
Sike
Everyone feels all the time
And when the light's went out of the sky
Over my grandparents farm in July
I said I'm gonna play the NBA
Hey hey hey
Yeah I'm gonna do that.
