"No Kind Of Love"

Never thought i'd feel this way you swore your love on all our mothers but that was only yesterday now here,s that pain all those colors you step right up, you sound so sweet you make a promise that you can't keep
no kind of love
no kind of anything that i really need i'd give up all my heart if there were somebody there for me I never thought you'd fee this way to act like i was born to suffer what was that you tried to say? you take a girl then try to love her you step right up, you act so clean i'm just a voice on your machine sometimes i really need you and i find you've gone and left me far behind i'm trying to believe you or to leave you, but you never have the time i'd give you all my heart if you were somebody there for me
