Starting out just like any summer days have felt the life time love that's where we find each other and we find ourselves oooh now and then don't have to look back now and then you're right here with me now and then oooh my friend don't say good bye again

looking in your eyes world's like a mirror every single joy and fear all for one and one for all yeah we did it

now and then you're right here with me

although it was long, long ago something here, here inside I love
now and then don't have to look back
now and then you're right here with me now and then yeah my friend

now and then
don't say good bye
don't say good bye
