"So Much For Love"

Visit "So Much For Love" on MotoLyrics.com

i got a marriage of convenience i got the true cosmetic love i got a set of circumstances that only last as long as either party says it does
so much for love
just kiss it off the moment you decide you've had enough
so much for love
i've got the freedom lover's commitment i got the true contemporary attitude i got the modern understanding that anyone is free to come and go just as they choose i got a contract to protect my labor i got it worded so it always works out in my favor got no loose ends to untangle i got a written guarantee that covers every angle

so much for love
don't ask me to try a little tenderness
so much for love
you won't see any tears on my pillow
so much for love
i don't care if your aim is true
why do fools fall in love?
