"Something New"

you want something new, something sweet to rinse away the bitterness of another day fading away you want something new, something bright to lighten up the shadows of your darkest fears hovering near you get so lonely lately, lonely and afraid maybe nothing really good will ever come your way you want something new, something hot flames of passion buring all your bridges down don't turn around i lie awake and watch you toss and turn i ask what's wrong, you turn away and say it's not my concern you want something new, something new but there is nothing i can do to make you see what you mean to me cause you know i love you and i know that's nothign new that's nothing new.
