Chorus:

Black Monday

That's what this joint is all about

Black Monday

A million men strong without a doubt

Black Monday

It's not just a role that one plays

Black Monday

So we can have justice one day

Black Monday

Black, Black Monday

Hey Yo, B - I thought we conquered the world

When a million men came and shined like a black pearl

This time there was no black on black crime

'Cause everybody was thinkin' of ways that pays for the black mind

One & equal

Not thinkin' of wealth

but knowledge of self

So the past won't repeat like a sequel

Visions of unity

Strong in the community

The same song sung for diplomatic immunity

Is soon to be reality

Not just a formality, an actuality

Built strong by our morality

Can you see what I can see

One force that be lettin' me be what I be

Without costing me members of my family tree

One man can stand for all

But who got his back when he fall

Yo, I had a dream that one day

One million men stood strong and we called it

Black Monday

Black Monday

Black Monday

Black, Black Monday

By now we all know that some wrongs have been committed

So be wise, organize my man

Yo, you with it?

Let's have the courage to stand up and speak out
Reach out and help out
No doubt
See we can actually make a difference
The politicians got game, but I say who are they kiddin'
Seriously, we gotta get our own thing tight
'Cause we ain't even learned to treat our own peeps right
You don't have to be a scholar to acknowledge You shouldn't harm your own just 'cause your fiendin' for dollars
That's messed up, so fess up
It's good for the soul
Repent
Change your ways
Exhibit more self control
We must be willin' to stop the killin'
'Cause if not
We'll destroy what our forefathers were building
Step up
Do something
It's your duty and purpose
All the material pleasures ultimately are worthless
Curses
They are not needed to explain that
You will wreck your brain
If you do not maintain Reconciliation, restoration and resolution
Atonement
Completion of perfect union
Black Monday
Chorus
