I've lost the way, I've lost my head
In the maze of reason
What happened to
My so called convictions?
I'm poised on a tightrope
Temptation burst like a flower
Hypnotic perfume kills me
Oh please help me, I can't resist, I want...
Castles in the air
They're so easy to take refuge in
Fungus fantasia
I see the sun in a grain of dust
And eternity in a sandglass
Within the walls of my skull
Pseudo-landspaces give me good vibes
There are two worlds for every man
Ambiguities of perspective
I want get stoned and i want create and I want...
Castles in the air
They're so easy to take refuge in
Billions of brain cells
They're so esay to inebriate
Fungus fantasia
I'm flying in the sun in a flattening of emotions
Pure burning light cast away weakness
Feeblemind get high, an experimental drive
Charger of the mind
I'm flying in the sun in a flattening of emotions
Pure burning light cast away weakness
This time I want repent and be cornered by the muse
All ugly thoughts are gone
