"A yellow dog and ginger queen-cat,
Run after one other under the sun".
It seems you came here just to tell me that
Then you pinch me and run away
"In this journey of self-discovery
My life begins and ends with pain".
Oh, she toys with my insecurity
Kick bt kick walls do move
Now your eyes start with a rip roarin' cry
No I can't understand your decay
But you drawl somethin' to jolly up
Hand in hand we walk alone
No I can't understand your decay
But you drawl somethin' to jolly up
Hand in hand we...
...Somethin' that works for me
But is unfold before your eyes
