But it's all right now
Can you read it in my eyes?
So your lies disappear
Can you read it in my eyes?
Oh no, don't ask me why
But it's not too late to change
Until the twelfth and last knell
And written in the blood on the floor
You see that you still can be saved
Oh no, don't ask me why
You got be blind
Still can be saved
Oh no, don't ask me why
You got be blind
You got to be mine
Your blowin' my mind
I'll make a journey of a thousand miles
To see the truth between the lines
But don't ask me why I'm crying
I forget about where it all began
I never knew the rules
I returned the womb so no one could see
