you see i thought that you were special baby something unique but lately ive come to find that your not really interested in my heart or mind (oh thats fine)

Chorus:
Thats alright
thats okay
you never loved me anyway
and i think its time for you to just move on (its allright its allright its allright) thats allright (thats allright) thats okay (thats okay)
i bet you never thought you'd hear me say that i think its time for you to find another dumb blonde cause its not me no no...

(quietly)
Last night i went to a party hoping i'd see you there (went to a party)
and sure enough
you were hanging on some other girl playing with her hair

and i overheard you telling her the very same thing you said to me the night before hook line and sinker
you were walking with her out the door

(loud)
Chorus:
thats allright
thats okay
you never loved me anyway
and i think its time for you
to just move on (its allright its allright its allright)

thats alright (its alright) thats okay (its okay)
i bet you never thought you'd hear me say that i think its time for you to find another dumb blonde
cause its not me no no...

you want just a little trohpy hanging on your arm so all your friends will see you got it going on
