I don't wanna be the one trapped in here
Feeling like there's no way out
It's killing me

Caught between the ruler and my saviour
Something's gotta give
I wish you all could see

I can't be the one this time (be the one this time)
It's so hard to find myself,
When I'm hiding behind these walls,
My heart is not the answer
But this car-crash is gonna be mine

I can't save you now

I'll write a book or I'll write this song
And I will try to think about who was wrong
I'd drive the coast for you baby
But I'm never gotta sort this out on my own

I can't be the one this time (be the one this time)
It's so hard to find myself,
When I'm hiding behind these walls,
My heart is not the answer
But this car-crash is gonna be mine

I can't save you now
(I can't save you now)

I cannot, not save you
You've buried yourself too far this time
And if you, thought that I
Was going to change for you, you're wrong
My heart can't be the answer to the questions that your asking me
Whoa!
I can't save you,
I can't save you now
You've buried yourself too far
