Smiling to my face while stabbing me in the back, that's how you behave, but it comes to an end. We see through the sieve, disappointment we feel, everybody know your games, the way you live is a shame. Smiling to my face while stabbing me in the back, that's how you behave, but it comes to an end. We see through the sieve, disappointment we feel, everybody know your games, the way you live is a shame. "Turn to me, tell me what's wrong, I'll help you out!" -Don't spread rumour! I've let you come too close to me, nothing to do, it's my mistake. I told you too much I guess, but all the others, I try to prevent, you got no place to stay here, lost our respect, How it feels? You could you be the best lawyer! "Turn to me, tell me what's wrong, I'll help you out!" -Don't spread rumour! I've let you come too close to me, nothing to do, it's my mistake. I told you too much I guess, but all the others, I try to prevent, you got no place to stay here, lost our respect, How it feels? Trust - once lost, so hard to get back. Empathy - is something you never had. Alone - you will remain, with no one to take your back, Sympathy - you can't expect, Apathy - result of your acts
