Mediocrity - a word that you're afraid of/ Insignificance
- haunting every day/ Your life is a struggle, the goal is to be unique/ To be different than others, to feel accomplished/ But when media defines your rebel/Efforts become ineffective And you'll end it up, by reaching 20/ What was it for? You live your life as You were told. Then it's meaningless/ You're on the way to be mediocre/ Mediocrity - a word that you're afraid of/Insignificance - haunting every day/ The word revolution becomes an empty slogan/ Thrown in by people who make profit of it/ The key is to think on your own/ Forget TV and seize your time/ Just enjoy your life, ignore convictions/ Take less care about social standards/ Mediocrity - a word that you're afraid of/Insignificance - haunting every day
