You all make me sick and now I'm fucking tired of all this petty bullshit and these pathetic games. It takes all my strength to keep my cool. You shitheads are all the same. Never gonna get caught up in your fucking game. You prick. This is all you deserve. Think the world owes you? You've got some fucking nerve. And I fucking smile when I see you standing there because I hate you and I don't care. This is your life you worthless fuck. I'll never fucking be like you. I'll make the best of what I got. You'll die a lonely fool. You're feeling cheated till the end. Bitterness is your only friend. This smile is my way of saying I hope I never fucking see you again
