We blew our chance. Everyone got scared. Now we're getting fucked by bastards that don't care. All morals thrown out the door. You get bought and sold and come back for more. No longer are you on our side. You're a fucking traitor and you can't fucking hide the fact that you'd rather line your fucking pockets and forget all about us. You'll fucking turn the other cheek. You piece of shit. You're so fucking weak. All morals have been thrown out the door (out the door). You get bought and sold and watch us get screwed even more. No longer are you on our side. You're a fucking traitor. That you can't hide
