Tell all your friends
Any lies about me
Play the victim again
Do whatever you need

Tell me how does it end
Guess we'll just have to see
Did you lie to yourself
Or did you just lie to me

Are we done yet
Are we done yet
Are we done yet
Are we done... yes

Watching love end
Gone without a goodbye
In two separate rooms
Crossin' t's, dotting I's

Just a sigh in the air
As hearts scream it's the end
And we both make a vow
Never to do it again.

Are we done yet
Are we done yet
Are we done yet
Are we done yes

Well, you used to be my life
And I can't help but wonder why
Or if you ever even tried
And my one regret is that I cried.

Are we done yet
Are we done yet
Are we done yet
Are we done... yes
