You're just another little sucker
What makes you think you're so much tougher
A self inflated hater that's so full of spite
You celebrate deflating others

The way you covet is a crime, jealousy's eatin' at your mind
And you're not even worth my time, you'll always be

Just another little sucker
Just another little sucker
Just a fool and common cynic, critic, you make me sick
And you'll always be
Just another little sucker

You're tryin' so hard to impress
Talkin' with a skyward head
You tell me this, you tell me that, but here's the truth You'll never go where I have been

You try to take the best of me, faking superiority
Such admiration mockery, you always be Â
Just another little sucker
Just another little sucker
Just a fool and common cynic, critic, you make me sick
And you'll always be
Just another little sucker

You try to take the best of me, faking superiority
Such admiration mockery, you'll only be what you will be
The way you covet is a crime, jealousy's eatin' at your
mind
And you're not even worth my time, you always be

Just another little sucker
Just another little sucker
Just a fool and common cynic, critic, you make me sick
And you'll always be
Just another little sucker

Just another little sucker
Just another little sucker
