I look back a little less
I lose track just a little more I guess
And every time I try to lose myself again
I find I'm just not gone yet
No doubt we fell in tune
We fade out just a little bit too soon
And every day I try to pull myself away
I find I just don't want to What's a boy to do now?

Every time I try to leave, I stall
Every time I try to turn, I fall
And I don't know why
But there's something that keeps changing my mind
Try my best to keep the feelings strong
In a corner up against the wall
And we hold on tight
To that something that keeps changing my mind

You begin to hesitate
It kicked in just a little bit to late
And every now and then you want to take it back again
To just set us both straight and
This song it goes
This stage is the only way I know
When the moment comes you gotta let it all go
What's a girl to do now?

Every time I try to leave, I stall
Every time I try to turn, I fall
And I don't know why
But there's something that keeps changing my mind
Try my best to keep the feelings strong
In a corner up against the wall
And we hold on tight
To that something that keeps changing my mind

I won't give up
The best part of us
When all is said and done
I hope you all come back around to us

We all become
So bruised and numb
When you've got to finally say goodbye to what you love

Every time I try to leave, I stall
Every time I try to turn, I fall
And I don't know why
But there's something that keeps changing my mind
Try my best to keep the feelings strong
In a corner up against the wall
And we hold on tight
To that something that keeps changing my mind

Every time I try to leave, I stall
Every time I try to turn, I fall
And I don't know why
Cause there's something that keeps changing my mind
Try my best to keep the feelings strong
In a corner up against the wall
And we hold on tight
To that something that keeps changing my mind
