I'm speaking up this time around,
Cause everything you lost is about to be found.
And I like the way you like way
I strum on my guitar as you let your hair down.
Mixes for the car ride home,
Singing out the words to every song we know.
That's just the way I roll
I let the feeling take me back.

Oh, I like the way you breath.
I'm taking it easy,
Could I maybe come by and sing you to sleep, yeah.

Where did I did I did I go
Where did I did I did I go
Where did I did I did I go, right.
This time.
Where did I did I did I go
Where did I did I did I go
Where did I did I did I go, right.
This time.

Take me back around and spin me once more.
It's comin out my mouth and straight to the dance floor.
The music's the only way I know
Now let me show you what I have in store.
Party's in the upstairs room,
Flowers in the backseat start to bloom.
I try my best to stay in tune
Cause this song always brings me back to...

The day we hit the streets
Out of the backyard, but it
Felt like we had the world at our feet.
And we did.

Where did I did I did I go
Where did I did I did I go
Where did I did I did I go, right.
This time.
Where did I did I did I go
Where did I did I did I go

Where did I did I did I go, right.
This time.

Fallin through, you start to come around here
everynight
I'm thinking maybe we can just unwind, we'll be just fine.
Spark and fire, sing along.
It's just like that bob dylan song,
We're livin like a rollin stone
Where we stop, I don't think so.

Where did I did I did I go
Where did I did I did I go
Where did I did I did I go, right.
This time.
Where did I did I did I go
Where did I did I did I go
Where did I did I did I go, right.
This time.

I like the way you breath, we're taking it easy
Could I maybe come by and sing you to sleep.
I'm drowning inside your world as we speak.
