And now I packed my bags and left so fast
You always said I had places to go
The way I felt in Tennessee is that I lost my family
And everyone I always known

The memories keep falling down on me
Of different times when we were all complete

Can you believe that my home's away from home?
Can you believe that I made it on my own?
And I made it on my own because of you

We've had our hard times, friends that we've lost
I guess that love just comes with a cost
Heartache for days before we all slipped away
Well I promise that I'll never let those fade

Can you believe that my home's away from home?
Can you believe that I made it on my own?
And I made it on my own because of you

Can you believe that my home's away from home?
Can you believe that I made it on my own?
Can you believe that my home's away from home?
Can you believe that I made it on my own?
And I made it on my own
And I only made it on my own because of you
