It's hard to say goodbye when
I never got the chance
I missed the mark on where to stop,
And now we just can't start again
And I know that this ain't easy,
But I'm giving it a shot
To carry on since you've been gone
Takes all my faith and that's all I've got

Are the lights bright just enough to see me?
Will you be waiting just to meet me there?

Let's call it a day
There's nothing left to say
My luck is running out
And you're taking over
I've jumped the gun again
I've lost my only friend
To the hands that make the stars

And that draw me closer

And I stop every time my heart beats
I get closer to a dream
That's always out in front of me
And I can't... I can't hold anything back
Confidence in what I lack
Is more than I could ever ask

Are the lights bright just enough to see me?
Will you be waiting just to meet me there?

Let's call it a day
My luck is running out
And you're taking over
I've jumped the gun again
I've lost my only friend
To the hands that make the stars
And draw me closer
