Dowager of wandering empires knocking at death's door
Putrid winds carried the voices wailing in the night Solitude of land Europa; battalions ominous Conquest dressed in ivory garb attack from east and west

Baleful ballad tragic spews
From her lips of lurid blue

Infantries of bony vampires draining one by one From the headlands plunge like death-birds; predators descend Prancing, laughing, undertakers don tools of dusky trade

Puppeteers in childish play, ghoulish marionettes

Baleful ballad tragic spews
From her lips of lurid blue
In a dream I saw her Drape her cloak from sea to sea

In dawn of life she came to flee with lonesome shadows before noon
Who dare impede her timely flight or rob of quarry due?

The coy, unwilling silent bride; Misery stands by her side
The demon mourner bathes in tears of those she left behind
