Another day gone and I think of you
Wonder where you're going
Wonder what you do without me

A telephone call from a friend I know
Left me feeling so unhappy

'Cause if you couldn't wait for twenty four hours
What good would telegrams and flowers do?

If it wasn't for the reason
That I love you baby
I wouldn't have another thing
To say to you

Might as well stay for a day or two
Find another friend
And have a drink or two to pass the time

Talking over troubles in a whiskey daze
A little drop of cognac helps a man
To face the lonely times

'Cause it's sad being home
And I've given up trying
I've got no lyin' that I wanna do

If it wasn't for the reason
That I love you, baby
I wouldn't have another thing
To say to you

Wish I could find a way
Make up the words to say
You cheated and you lied
You took away the little pride
I had inside

If it wasn't for the reason
That I love you, baby
I wouldn't have another thing

To say to you

Another day gone and I think of you
Wonder where you're going
Wonder what you do without me

Left me feeling so unhappy

Might as well stay for a day or two
Find another friend
And have a drink or two to pass the time

Talking over troubles in a whiskey daze
A little drop of cognac
Helps a man to face the lonely times
