Look at life, take a look around you
Look at life, doesn't it astound you?

See the colors of the sky
Watch the colors of a rainbow
We're so lucky, you and I
Look at life

It's there for us
So why don't we use it
Four seasons of the year
All you do is choose it

Warm summers bring the sun
And with the falling leaves the autumn
All the new things come with spring
Look at life

Warm summers bring the sun
And with the falling leaves
We get the autumn
The autumn

You see a young boy pick a flower
Why does he do it?
He picks it for the one he loves
That's why he does it

He sees the colors of the sky
Watches the colors of a rainbow
We're so lucky, you and I
Look at life

Look at life, look at life, look at life
Look at life, look at life
