Please don't feel too bad
Because I'm leaving
I'm coming home again to you

And when I go away
I know you're grieving
Although you know that I'll be too

I'm wondering what to do
To make you know you're mine
I'll take you in my arms
And then all will be fine

And when I'm away from you
You know I'll miss you
I want to feel your tender touch

And when I'm feeling blue
I want to kiss you
I stay away from you too much

I'm wondering what to do
To make you know you're mine
I'll take you in my arms
And then all will be fine

And when I'm away from you
You know I'll miss you
I want to feel your tender touch

And when I'm feeling blue
I want to kiss you
I stay away from you too much

Whoa, whoa, yeah, too much
Yeah, yeah, yeah, too much
Whoa, whoa, whoa, too much
