It's been such a long time
Since I had words with you
Tell me what you've been doing
Tell me baby, what's new

I've been hanging 'round with our old friends
Getting a line on what's happening with your game
They all know something about you
But their stories all are the same

Look out girl you're gonna get caught, ooh
Getting caught means I'm gonna lose you
Get on the right track, then I'll have you back

Second hand hangups don't get me down
This ain't my first time around
I'm not disillusioned, I'm a member of the union
Membership paid done my dues

Secondhand hangups don't get me down
This ain't my first time around
I'm not disillusioned, I'm a member of the union
Membership paid done my dues

And it's been such a long time
Since I had words with you
Tell me what you've been doing
Tell me baby, what's new, tell me baby what's new
