And the power you have over me
Won't ever let me be
It's always holding me to you

And the strange things you say to me
Why do you play with me?
It's just too sad to see

Stop, right there
Tell me, what you're doing to my mind in there?
Tell me, what you're doing?
Am I blind?

Long ago everything about you
Was for me to hold
Now my thoughts about you
Won't stay cold

And in time I might slip away
Into the light of day
But with you I must stay, it's true

Wishful thinking will just bring me down
It's plain to see you own
The ground I'm standing on

Stop, right there
Tell me, what you're doing to my mind in there?
Tell me, what you're doing?
Am I blind?

Long ago everything about you
Was for me to hold
Now my thoughts about you
Won't stay cold

And in time I might slip away
Into the light of day
But with you I must stay, it's true

Wishful thinking will just bring me down
It's plain to see you own

The ground I'm standing on
