Hello, I found a stitch to wear and came out tonight
Well, everybody looks at me like come kind of tramp
'Cause I, I wear these holy jeans
Well, heaven forbid and send an angel

'Cause I need somebody tonight, somebody tonight
Who'll take my hand, don't you let me go
I need somebody tonight, somebody tonight

Well, I can't really dance
But baby won't you dance with me
And if you want to take your chance
Then baby take your chance on me

Where we gonna go, where we gonna go
Where we gonna go at the end of the night?
I don't care and I don't mind
As long as you keep holding me tight

Every night all the boys and girls are busy saying alright
I know, I know your face but I've forgotten your name, again
I blame the alcohol that swims 'round my brain
I need a drink

Because I need some joy in my life, I need joy in my life
Won't you take my hand, don't you let me go
I need some joy in my life, some joy in my life

Well, I can't really dance
But baby won't you dance with me
And if you want to take your chance
Then baby take your chance on me

Where we gonna go, where we gonna go
Where we gonna go at the end of the night?
I don't care, I don't mind
As long as you keep holding me tight, tight

I've got your number, I'll call you up some time
And if you'd like to, say that you'll be mine

I would like to see you again sometime
I would like to see you again sometime

Well, I can't really dance
But baby won't you dance with me
And if you want to take your chance
Then baby take your chance on me
On me, on me, on me
