Everyone can see the things I'm hiding here
Underneath my skin
Everywhere I've ever been
I have left a part of my within
And now the ugly parts
Come shining through
I knew they'd find their ugly way to you
Oh, no, no, no

Everything I ever said is something new
Til I say it all again
Every time I find my way I just find you
And I don't know where I've been
And now the ugly parts come breaking in
They run across the room
And breathe us in
Oh no, no, no
Oh no, no, no

I know the clouds only part halfway
But if you'll have me
I hope to stay

Every heavy part of you is on the ground
There's no shoe left to fall
Every heavy part of you
Seems something sound
Wonder why you're here at all
'Cause now the ugly parts have found their way
Don't let them take you from me
Stay, stay, stay
Stay, stay, stay
Oh, no, no, no
Oh, no, no, no
Oh, no, no, no
Oh, no, no, no
