Maybe I didn't cry, when you first told me the lie
Maybe I thought it would be big mistake
I knew teardrops wouldn't help
So I kept them to myself
There's no heart so strong it will not break.

When I called you on the phone
And you we're not alone
Oh you never knew it was hard for me to take
Cause I tried my best to hide the hurt inside
There's no heart so strong it will not break

Chorus:

There's no heart so strong that it could hold its own

When the loneliness is more than it can take
Oh you but don't ever ever think
There's a heart so strong it will not break

If she ever lets you go, then I'm sure you will know
There's no heart so strong it will not break.
There's no heart so strong it will not break.
