

Holly Mcnarland "When You Come Down"

Visit "When You Come Down" on MotoLyrics.com

she sounds so perfect
you taste her in your dreams sleeps so quietly
he secretly adores
and i'm listening, listening to my friend he's in love again

CHORUS

when you come down i'll be waiting when you come down i'll be hurting
when you come down i'll be waiting
when you come down

it sounds so real this time don't you forget about me i'll wait here so patiently the dust dies down

and i'm watching, watching my friend
he's in love again

CHORUS

she seems so nervous
she's looking at me
i'm watching, listening to my friend
he's in love again
