Every time I go to sleep
I kick and scream and dream a little bit
Violently awakening to what's real is really bullshit

Every time I go to sleep
I kick and scream and dream a little bit
Violently awakening to what's real is really bullshit

And there's no light for me

Every time I go to sleep
I kick and scream and dream a little bit
Violently awakening to what's real is really bullshit

Every time I go to sleep
I kick and scream and dream a little bit
Violently awakening to what's real is really bullshit

And there's no time waiting

All this space
We stretch to bend, to pull
To keep our face
On the other side of the world

And there's no going back
And there's only change, uh

All my life
Has been on the edge of falling down
One cool night
They're gonna put my heart in the ground

And there's no going back
And there's only change, uh
