These things are always difficult between a father and a daughter
It's always very delicate it makes it so much harder
If you look into her eyes you'll see you've always been her world
Even though she's growing now she's still your baby girl
I know it's hard

[Chorus:]

To let her go, let her go
Let her fall let her fly
She wants to touch the world with her own hands
Let her go, let her go
Let her love and let her cry
If you trust her soon you both will understand
She'll come back home if you let her go

I know you want the best for her I know you're just afraid
One day she's gonna leave you for a boy who is the same as
You were in the 60's careless as the wind She's beautiful like her mama we know where that could end
I know it's hard

To let her go, let her go
Let her fall, let her fly
She wants to touch the world with her own hands
Let her go, let her go
Let her love and let her cry
If you trust her soon you both will understand
She'll come back home if you let her go

Just like the way you let me years ago
And I'm still coming home

Let her go, let her go
Let her fall, let her fly
She wants to touch the world with her own hands
Let her go, let her go

Let her love and let her cry

Oh let her go, let her go, let her fall let her fly
She wants to touch the world with her own hands
