Underneath this age
Is the heart of a child
It only wants to love
It begs to come alive

I want your desire
And I long for your hands
To grace me with their presence
And touch me again
Nothing more

Well I don't want your nice gifts
And I'm so tired of your words
See I'd really like a feeling
From the place that you love
And nothing more
Nothing more

And it's a long way we've come
Just to simply exist like this

Tell me something true
Even if it hurts
I'm waiting on a sign
Do you remember love?
Do you remember love?
Nothing more

All that I want is you in the end
All that I want is you in the end
All that I want is you in the end
All that I want is you
