If I could have used my hands
To pick you up and make you stand
Would you still have fallen?

If I could have told you true
Would you still be with us in bloom?
Would you have believed me
Or would you still have fallen?

Days go by like broken years
With nothing felt, not even tears
Everything's a lie

If I could have made you see
If I had tried everything I knew
Just a little harder
Would you still have fallen?

What's the use in all these words?
Where's the heart that I used to love?, I'm sorry I'm still late
Rational thinking come undone
But it's not the man, it's the drug
Everything's a lie, where have you fallen?

Well I loved you more than you'll ever know
And I trusted you to never hurt yourself, or anyone else
Now were the ones dying, yeah were the ones dying
You're not even here but we're the ones dying

What's the use in all these words?
Where's the heart that I used to love? I'm sorry I'm still late
Rational thinking come undone
But it's not the man, it's the drug
Everything's a lie, everything's a lie
It's all a lie, it's all a lie

If I could have made you see
If I had tried everything I knew
Just a little harder
Would you still have fallen?
