Welcome to a city that'll bring you to your knee's It'll make you beg for more, until you can't even breathe
Your blindfold is on tight, but you like what you see So follow me into the night, cause I got just what you need We're all rollin' down the boulevard, full of pimps and sharks
It's a motherfuckin' riot, we've been dying to start You better grab a hold cause now you know your falling apart
You thought these streets were paved in gold
But there dirty and dark

Been to hell!
I can show you the devil!
Down you fell
Can't hold yourself together
Soul to sell
Down here you live forever
Welcome to a world where dreams become nightmares!

In the belly of the best, I'm a wolf amongst sheep
At the bottom of the hill, but at the top of the street Above the boulevard, schoolyard, victim of deceit And your running hard, but this wolf it's always at your feet Ya you've seen it all before, but the wolf's outside your door
And you're old enough to run, you ain't hiding anymore Another victim of the star spangled banner of the street
Now you're in the world of the wolves
And we welcome all you sheep

Been to hell!
I can show you the devil!
Down you fell
Can't hold yourself together
Soul to sell

Down here you live forever
Welcome to a world where dreams become
nightmares!

You need to wake up and face it
So you can taste my reality
Now you're stuck in this place you hate
And you came here so happily
Then it made you lose your faith
And that's what fucked with your sanity Say goodbye to your soul and say hello to your vanity Hollywood is your friend, and the undead are your family
We'll take you to the edge, and turn your regret into agony
And I'll never let you go, cause I know you'll come back to me
I'm the reason you came here, I'm the American Tragedy

Been to hell!
I can show you the devil!
Down you fell
Can't hold yourself together
Soul to sell
Down here you live forever
nightmares!
