(J-Dog)

I can't see because I'm staring at a blank wall (blank wall)

I can't breathe because my fucking thoughts are choking me now

I can't grieve for the souls that are so lost (are so lost)

I can't leave because my fucking self is holding me down

Imagine cold hands up to your throat

The thought alone makes you swallow your hope

And now it's harder to cope

And I don't know where I'll go

These fallacies I don't believe, and fear that nobody knows

IT'S A RED NIGHT AND I DON'T SEE ANY LIGHT

AND THEN A FLAT LINE, I'm FUCKING READY TO DIE

(Chorus/Danny)

As I look up from the ground

I see darkness all around

And I'm lost but can be found inside my mind

Goodbye

As I look up from the ground

I see darkness all around

And I'm lost but can be found up in the sky

Goodbye

(Da Kurriz)

LOOK AS WE ALL FALL APART

WE ALL FALL APART

WE ALL FALL APART

(J-Dog)

Would you forgive me if I told you that I lied like you

So full of hate with the love to lose

Would you deny it if I asked you just to tell the truth

Cause in the end you gotta decide what side to choose

Imagine cold hands holding your heart

The thought alone can tear you apart
I know you wish it would end, it's sad it's only the start
These memories they only mean my soul is empty and dark

(Chorus/Danny)

As I look up from the ground
I see darkness all around
And I'm lost but can be found inside my mind
Goodbye

As I look up from the ground
I see darkness all around
And I'm lost but can be found up in the sky
Goodbye

(J-Dog)

IT'S A RED NIGHT, IF IT'S WRONG OR IT'S RIGHT
AND IF I DON'T FIGHT IT'S LIKE BEING BURIED ALIVE (x2)

(Danny)

Cause I, I wanna feel anything
And I know that we all think we can't be wrong
Soon we all be gone

And I, I don't know what this means
But if I knew anything, I'd know for sure
We'll all be gone

As I look up from the ground
I see darkness all around
And I'm lost but can be found inside my mind
Goodbye

As I look up from the ground
I see darkness all around
And I'm lost but can be found up in the sky
Goodbye
