Hello, San Francisco
Oh, we finally got a chance to meet
Hello, hello San Francisco
Wo, we finally got a chance to meet
I knew someday
That I would walk up and down your hilly streets

You know I love Chicago
Someone tell me it's nineteen and sixty eight
You know I love, I love Chicago
Somewhere around nineteen and sixty eight
But some of my good friends told me
That my baby was headed toward that Golden Gate

You know, I heard she had a boyfriend
And this cat's name was Buddy Joe
You know, I heard she had a boyfriend
And this cat's name was Buddy Joe
I heard he was a big time gambler
And he was running a game down on Philco

Oh, somebody tell me, tell me
Where can this Philco street be found
Oh somebody, somebody better tell me
Where in the world can this Philco street be found
You know I'm gonna find my woman down there
You think I'm gonna try to find that Philco district down
