A mummified voice behind the veil
A distant sound that still reminds me
Of church bells mourning my success
I want to leave this world behind me

Feeling lonely and confused
I'm losing my grip on reality
Can you see me? I am sure you don't
My mind's protected from your sanity

Face of a jerk
Eyes of a jerk
Face of a jerk

Can't sleep at night or in the day
'Cause I created something dreadful
A juggernaut that haunts my dreams
Gave life to something that will end it all

Right now I am drawn into the void
You see I am beyond redemption
This hybrid God that I called forth
It's a sin against creation

Face of a jerk
Eyes of a jerk
Face of a jerk

Can't sleep at night or in the day
'Cause I created something dreadful
A juggernaut that haunts my dreams
Gave life to something that will end it all

Right now I am Drawn into the void
You see I am beyond redemption
This hybrid God that I called forth
It's a sin against creation
