

Holy Mother "Melting Pot"

Visit "Melting Pot" on MotoLyrics.com

Holding on, you left me when my brother took my throne

Stripped me of my shield to die alone

My horse is left, my only friend

We'll pound the streets with bloody heels

Return tonight to battle for my home

Steel...my guns of steel are rusting rot

Mind...my mind is in the melting pot

Holy wars of rhyme and reason, watch the money flow

Building bombs of tears, a country grows

Endless cries, a soldier dies

Another war in time

Power, reaches power, in your mind

Steel...my guns of steel are rusting rot

Mind...my mind is in the, burning in the rot

Steel...my guns of steel are rusting rot

Mind...my mind is in

My mind is in

My mind is in the melting, melting pot

Hey, the light seems to light up the sky

One seems to just wonder why

The world will regret, it's a lie

Holding on, you left me when my brother took my throne

Stripped me of my shield to die alone

Steel.. my guns of steel are rusting rot

Mind...my mind is in the melting pot
