The night is closing
Closing on me
I watch the sun
Fall into the sea
And I think of you and me

Where are you?
When my tears are falling down
Where are you?
You're not around

The days are long
The night's eternity
I think of how it is
And how it used to be
When You were here with me

Where are you?
When my tears are falling down
Where are you?
You're not around

The days are long
The night's eternity
I think of how it is
And how it used to be
When you were here with me

I lay, I bleed
But you will never see
I cry, I need
I lay, I bleed
But you will never see
The pain inside of me

The fire has died
It's such a great divine
But God can fill the sea
Won't you come back to me?

I see your face

In my mind it haunts me to this day
When I sleep
You're in my dreams
Just can't get away

I lay, I bleed
But you will never see
I cry, I need
You know I need you
I lay, I bleed
But you will never see
I lay, I bleed
The pain inside of me
The pain... the pain
