The conflict rises swift before you
Abominations of human life
As if you've seen it all before you
Join the celebrated strife
From somewhere deep beneath the surface
The calls of millions just fade away
Signalling their new traditions
Timless honour the proud must pray

Submit to force
I will stand my ground to the bitter end
Submit to force
None deny me my right to die
Submit to force
Now the terror is real
Submit to force
Closer to fear than before
The holy light of dawn is coming
Prince of darkness now retires
The black cat eyed feline mistress

"CHANTS BY THE CAULDRON'S FIRE"
Packs of human wolves are howling
The smell of blood is in the air
Banshi screams her hellish aria
Faithfull souls beware
