I saw my old friend the other day
It'd been 3 years since I went my separate way
I left him when he needed me the most
And up until this day I claimed innocence

Chorus 2X
And you suffered
I didn't mean to let you suffer
I didn't mean to let you suffer
I didn't mean to let you down

Nothing left for me at all
For selfish reasons
I let a good friend fall
For circumstances that were beyond his control
I no longer claim my innocence

I didn't mean to let you down
I didn't mean to let you down
I didn't mean to let you down
I didn't mean to let you down

Chorus
