"Let Go"

Why be concerned with things
That you don't have control over?
What good is it to worry
When you never really know what's going to happen?

Woah, woah
Woah woah, woah

Tomorrow's just another day
You'll find your way, you'll be okay
You just have to learn to let go
Let go

When things get you down
Should you look back? No, turn your head around
And take things one day at a time
But plan ahead for mountains you have yet to climb

Tomorrow's just another day
You'll find your way, you'll be okay
You just have to learn to let go
Let go

Tomorrow's just another day
You'll find your way, you'll be okay
You just have to learn to let go
