I feel stranged from all my friends.
I feel a dick-connection,
I guess I don't need them.
When they're around, they'll criticize...
...about my happiness. It's makes me hurt inside.

Chorus:

Overcuming all my fears. Constantly criticized by all my peers. I don't want you around me anymore. Find someone else to be your friend leave me alone, leave me alone...

Whem I'm by myself,
I feel so free: No one to push me down and make me brush my teeth: When they're around, they'll criticize. My friends (suck because they) don't understand that they're hurting me inside.

Chorus
