Brown is the color that kills me angel eyes
Burn a candle the faith that heals me
Rediscover love rediscover life
On the other side of the picture frame
Where you and I were still alive

Do the only rational thing
Clearly you miss having her around
Do the only rational thing
Get your shit together baby and leave

Dances gracefully across my mind
Summer evenings in my dreams
In New York City babe New York City Nights
Underneath the Hudson on the train
We can take our time

Do the only rational thing
Clearly you miss having her around
Do the only rational thing
Get your shit together baby and leave

Say love can you keep your phone on after nine
Say love do you think I'll make it there in time?
Say love you can never feel beyond the line
Say love do you think I'll make it there in time?
Say love do you think I'll make it there in time?
Say love, say love, say love, say love
For the sake of love

Do the only rational thing
Clearly you miss having her around
Do the only rational thing
Get your shit together baby and leave
