You should've tried to explain,
Through hiding inside, so you claim,
And I'll be impressed, I'm finally rested,
Send my lovin', ooh, it's the least I could do.
Allow me the ringing in your ear,
Allow me the silence that you hear,
And I'll be impressed and finally restful,
Send my lovin', ooh.
Another moment, another signal,
If you won't hold me, I've got to go,
Under the spotlight, you give me stage fright,
If you won't hold me, I've got to go.
Throw you a line, if you please,
I'll see you tonight, on your knees,
And I'll lead the way, you'll beg me to stay, ooh,
Send my lovin', ooh, it's the least I could do.
Allow me the ringing in your ear,
Allow me the silence that you hear,
And I'll be impressed and finally restful,
Send my lovin', ooh.
Another moment, another signal,
If you won't hold me, I've got to go,
Under the spotlight, you give me stage fright,
If you won't hold me, I've got to go.
Another moment, another signal,
If you won't hold me, I've got to go,
Under the spotlight, you give me stage fright,
If you won't hold me, I've got to go.
