He left town a long time ago angel dust tempted him and he went after a woman he was a real hit over here He keeps rigging something on the side yeah, he was a leader of the pack it was a dream team, nothing to say with the public he had his way Never, never give it up! [x4] He won't sit still for long every now and then he drops by a good drive pushes him and me so I heave peace of mind

Never, never give it up! [x4]
He keeps rigging something on the side
yeah, he was a leader of the pack
it was a dream team, nothing to say
with the public he had his way
