(Greg Perry/Edyth Wayne)

No, no, I'll never hurt you
No, no, I won't desert you
You're all that I'm living for
I need your love and nothing more

Take my love, that's all I can give
Take my lonely life, without you I can't live
Take this heart of mine in the palm of my hand
Talk to me, darling
Let me know you'll understand

I'm a woman
And I need a little tender care
I need to know
I have a love that's waiting there
To give me what I want, yeah
Every time I want it
To give me what I need, yeah
Every time I need it

Take my love, that's all I can give
Take this lonely life, without you I can't live
Re-arrange my love, don't let it tumble down
Reassure me that you'll be around

What good is a life if I ain't living
What good is living if I ain't giving
All my love to you
Knowing that you love me, too
So much love to share
But at least someone to care

No, no, I'll never hurt you
No, no, I won't desert you (No, I'll never hurt you)
You're all that I'm living for (Oh, no)
I need your love and nothing more

No, no, I'll never hurt you
No, no, I won't desert you

You're all that I'm living for
I need your love and nothing more

Take my love
Take my love
Take my love
Take my love, won't you please

I am a woman
I wasn't meant to be alone
I was meant to make someone a happy home
To look into your eyes across the breakfast table
Doing everything I can and more if I am able

Take my love, that's all I can give
Take my lonely life, without you I can't live
Take this heart of mine in the palm of my hand
Talk to me, darling
Let me know you'll understand
I'm a woman

No, no, I'll never hurt you
No, no, I won't desert you
You're all that I'm living for
I need your love and nothing more

No, no, I'll never hurt you
No, no, I won't desert you
You're all that I'm living for
I need your love and nothing more

No, no, I'll never hurt you
No, no, I won't desert you
You're all that I'm living for
I need your love and nothing more
